

2009 Outstanding Directors Advisory Board

Linda L. Chavez

Chairman, Center for Equal Opportunity

Director: ABM Industries, Pilgrim's Pride

Currently chairs the Center for Equal Opportunity, writes a weekly syndicated column that appears in papers across the country, and has published three books including Betrayal, an analysis of union corruption. In January 2001, Chavez was President George W. Bush's nominee for Secretary of Labor until she withdrew her name from consideration. Chavez was a member of the board of directors of Greyhound from 1995 to 1999.