

Stephen E. Frank

Retired Chairman & CEO,
Southern California Edison

Stephen E. Frank is the retired Chairman, President and CEO of Southern California Edison. Prior to joining SCE in 1995, Frank was President, COO, and a director of Florida Power & Lighting Company. Previously he was EVP and CFO of TRW, Inc and VP, Controller, and Treasurer of GTE Corporation. He also held numerous financial and sales management positions with U.S. Steel Corp.

Frank, who served in the United States Marine Corps, earned his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College, an MBA from the University of Michigan, and completed the Advanced Management Program at the Harvard Business School.

DIRECTOR: Northrop Grumman, Puget Energy,
Washington Mutual